Part 4: Short Talk Questions (25%)

Listen to the following paragraph and answer the questions.

Superstitions about black cats date back to the Middle Ages. Back then, people suspected that they were connected to witchcraft. Stories claimed they were either witches' familiars or witches themselves, bringing ill will upon anyone who ran into them. Many black cats, as a result, were killed across Europe in hopes of diminishing the witches' power. However, black cats haven't always been seen as a bad sign. In Egypt, people worshipped cats of all colors, and black cats have more recently been given as wedding gifts in England. Sadly, due to ongoing prejudice, black cats are the kind least likely to be adopted from shelters. Therefore, if you were to keep a cat, you could consider a black cat. You'd gain a loyal friend, and if the cat happens to have a witch's power, you'll have that power on your side.

(2 Unit 13) #C

- (B) 16. What did people in the Middle Ages believe about black cats?
- (A) Black cats bring good luck.
  - (B) Black cats are related to witches.
  - (C) Black cats spread diseases.
  - (D) Black cats are the rarest kind of cat.
- (A) 17. What resulted from people's mistaken beliefs about black cats?
- (A) Many black cats were killed.
  - (B) Black cats were kept in cages.
  - (C) Many black cats were sent away.
  - (D) People tried to change the color of black cats.
- (D) 18. When do British people give black cats as gifts?
- (A) When someone is born.
  - (B) When people celebrate birthdays.
  - (C) When someone dies.
  - (D) When people get married.
- (C) 19. Why are black cats least likely to be adopted from shelters?
- (A) Because they are unfriendly to humans.
  - (B) Because they don't look cute and adorable.
  - (C) Because people have unreasonable feelings about them.
  - (D) Because people believe they get sick more easily than other cats.
- (C) 20. What is the purpose of this passage?
