Part 4: Short Talk Questions (20%)

Listen to the following paragraph and answer the questions.

A few months ago, a prankster made news across Japan when he deliberately broke the rules of restaurant etiquette. In a video that went viral after it was posted on social media, a high school student is shown giggling as he licks a soy sauce bottle and touches sushi on the conveyor belt. The video disgusted many viewers, and within a few days, the restaurant's stock price plunged by 5 percent. Therefore, the restaurant took legal action against the boy and his parents. After receiving a lot of negative publicity generated by his stunt, the boy was forced to drop out of school. It's important to remember that videos posted online remain there forever. As such, the 15 minutes of fame a prank video might bring are unlikely to be worth the consequences they can have on a prankster's future. (6 Unit 1) #A

- (D) 17. How did the teenage boy get himself into trouble in the restaurant?
 - (A) He got into a fight with other customers.
 - (B) He threw plates of sushi on the ground.
 - (C) He behaved rudely towards the waiter.
 - (D) He touched food on the conveyor belt.

- (A) 18. What was the teenage boy doing in the viral video?
 - (A) He was laughing.
 - (B) He was coughing.
 - (C) He was arguing.
 - (D) He was crying.

- (B) 19. What happened to the restaurant after the video went viral?
 - (A) It shut down forever.
 - (B) It lost money.
 - (C) It became more popular.
 - (D) It gained 5 percent more customers.

- (C) 20. What is the moral of the news story in this passage?
 - (A) Avoid eating at conveyor-belt sushi restaurants.
 - (B) Always wash your hands before you eat.
 - (C) Be careful when you put videos on the Internet.
 - (D) Watching viral videos can get you into trouble.
