Part 4: Short Talk Questions (20%)

Listen to the following paragraphs and answer the questions.

Paragraph A

Why do we crave crunchy and crispy foods? One reason is the sound they make. When we are eating a crunchy food, we're hearing and tasting at the same time, and this is a richer experience for our brains. The sound could make us pay attention to the food's flavor. Another factor is texture. One of the greatest pleasures of eating is the variety of textures that you can experience. The sensation of food in your mouth is known as mouthfeel. Along with the softness of a nice cheese or the juiciness of a ripe mango, the crispiness of foods like popcorn or cookies gives a satisfying mouthfeel. (10 Unit 4) #B

(A) 17. Why do we like the sound of crispy food, according to the passage?

- (A) The sound gives us a better eating experience.
- (B) The sound indicates that the food is healthy.
- (C) The sound is usually made by food that tastes good.
- (D) The sound makes us feel hungry when we're not.

(B) 18. Which is the best description of mouthfeel?

- (A) Using your mouth to sense whether a food is fresh or not.
- (B) The feeling of different textures of food in your mouth.
- (C) The sensation of various temperatures in your mouth.
- (D) The way your mouth feels after you've eaten.

Paragraph B

In 1926, the Draps family opened their first Godiva chocolate shop in Belgium. They based their brand name on the legend of Lady Godiva, who lived in an English town during the eleventh century. She was married to a strict man, who ruled over the town and imposed heavy taxes on his subjects. Lady Godiva felt this was unfair and begged him to reconsider. He agreed, but she would have to ride her horse through the streets naked. Lady Godiva was determined to help her people, so she accepted the challenge. To keep her modesty, everyone stayed indoors with closed windows. Her husband finally kept his promise and got rid of the high taxes. (11 Unit 2) #A

(D) 19. What did Lady Godiva think was unfair?

- (A) Using her name to open a chocolate shop.
- (B) Being married to a strict man.
- (C) Forcing people to close their windows.
- (D) Making people pay huge taxes.

(A) 20. What did Lady Godiva have to do to change her husband's mind?

- (A) Take her clothes off and ride a horse through the streets.
- (B) Say sorry to her husband and ride a horse through the streets.
- (C) Take her clothes off and walk slowly around the town.
- (D) Ride a horse through the streets and knock on people's doors.
