國立彰化高中 114 學年度英文作文比賽高二組作文試卷與題目

題目：Political conflicts, such as the long-standing hostility between the U.S. and Iran, often result in unintended consequences for ordinary people, including economic hardship and social instability.

First, describe the impacts you have observed from wars. Second, if you were a world leader, how would you solve a serious conflict between countries?

(不用抄題，請寫 300 字左右)

From ancient world to modern globe, wars have been on the last situation people want to experience. However, for economy and power, some countries still choose to launch a war despite severe impacts. First, during wars, ordinary people undoubtedly are influenced. For example, if grocery stores and convenience stores are destroyed, people will lack necessities for daily life such as food, clothes and so on. In addition, wars continue so long that people's economy worsens rapidly as some of them are limited at home. Eventually, people need to face the risk of death. Under those circumstances, social stability decreases, and illegal things like robbery and theft happen which is unaffordable for any countries.

Looking at aforementioned impacts makes me want to improve it. From my perspective, the reason caused wars is mainly attributed to conflicts between countries. Therefore, I think that if I were a country leader, I would make some solutions. In the beginning, I try my best to negotiate with countries. After all, staying peace is <sup>absolutely</sup> a wise move. Furthermore, preparing resources is a must to prevent wars from happening. Last but not least, if wars happen unfortunately, I will evacuate citizens to shelter for emergency. In order to ensure their safety for live. In conclusion, wars is extremely destructive, so
